

We Care Solar

The Power to Save Lives

IRENA

November 2, 2012

Irene Abagi

We Care Solar, Kenya

A group of women, many wearing headscarves, are gathered in a hospital waiting area. The background shows signs for 'LABORATORY', 'COUNSELING & P...', and 'CARD ROOM'. The women are looking in various directions, some towards the camera. The overall atmosphere is one of anticipation and concern.

1 in 22

Hemorrhage
Infection
Eclampsia
Obstructed Labor

Women's Emergency Communication and Reliable Electricity

Maternity Ward

Maternity Ward

Operating Room

Operating Room

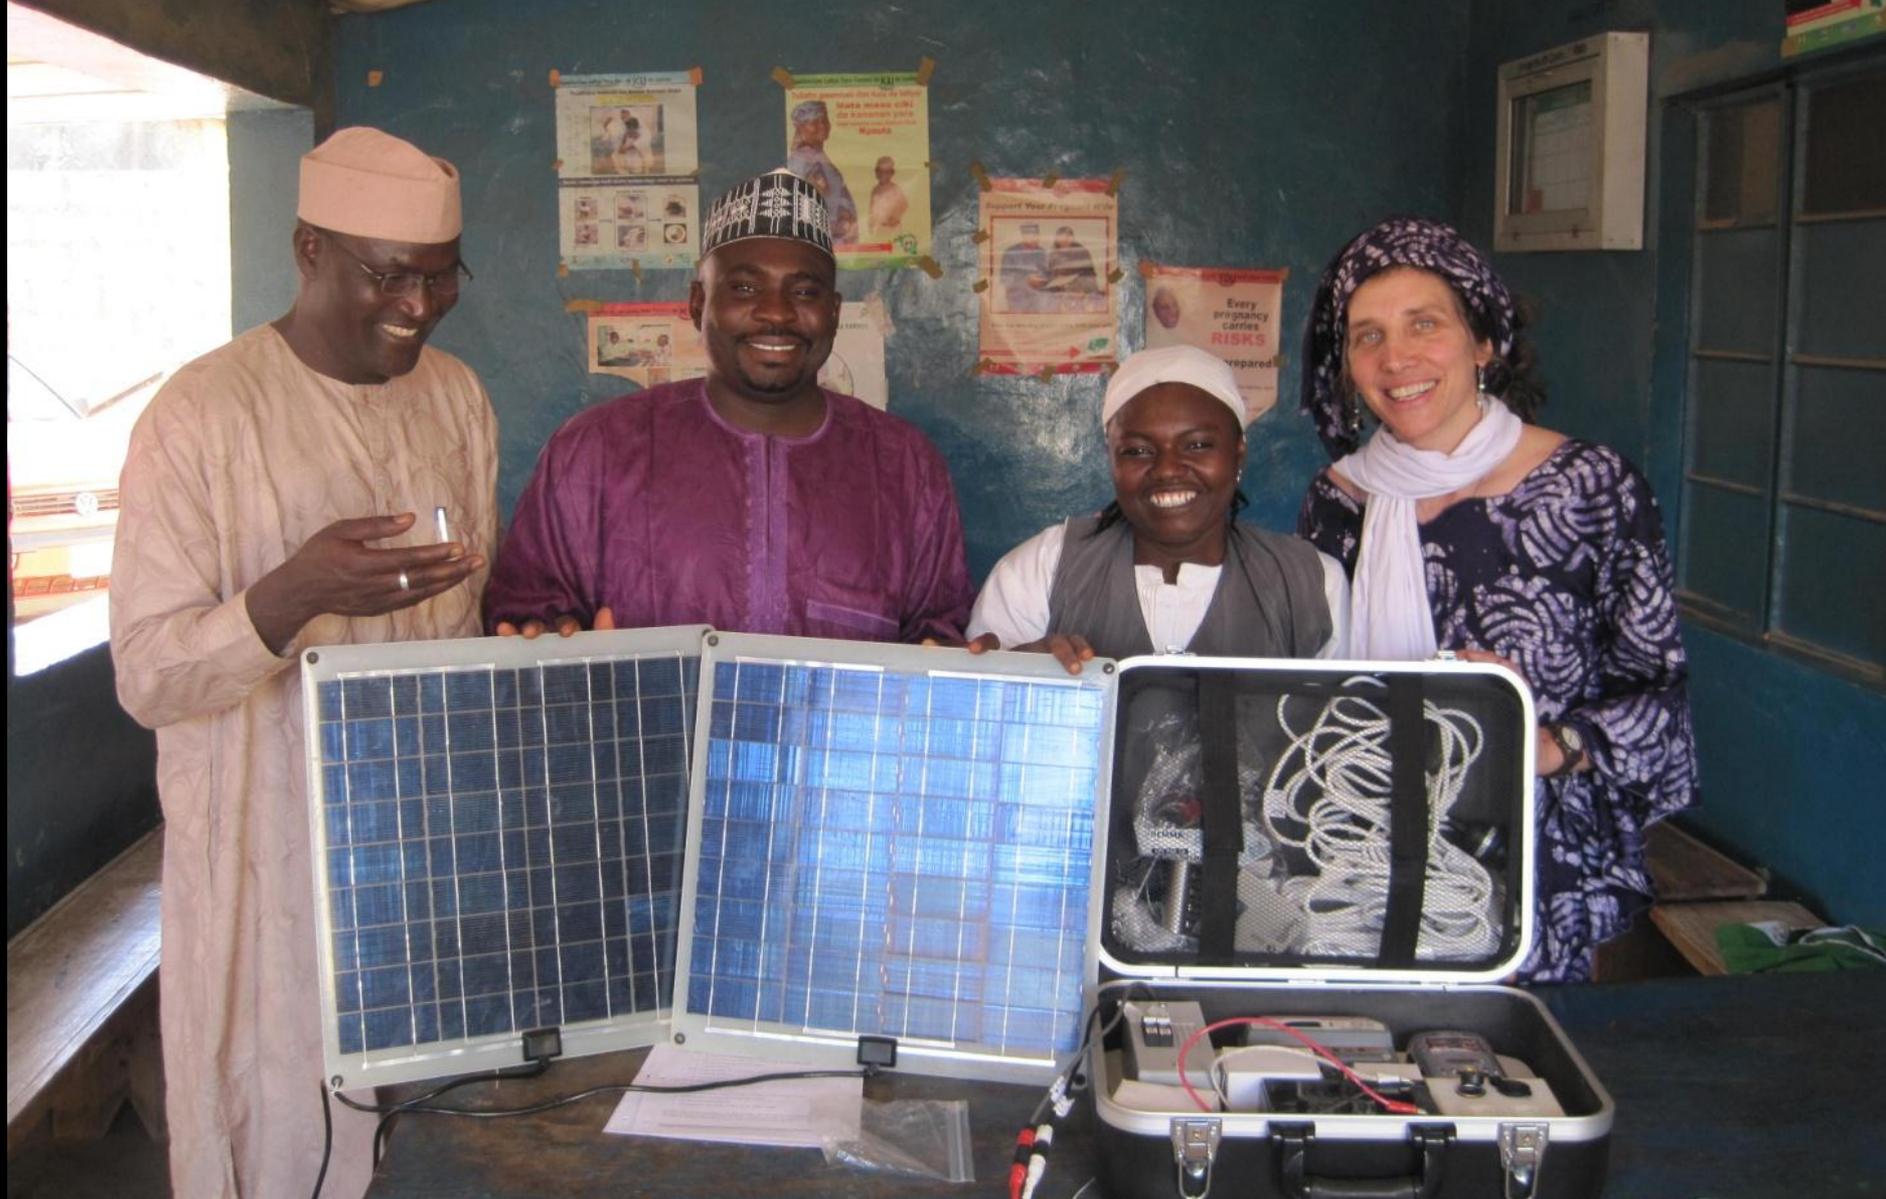

Blood Bank Refrigerator

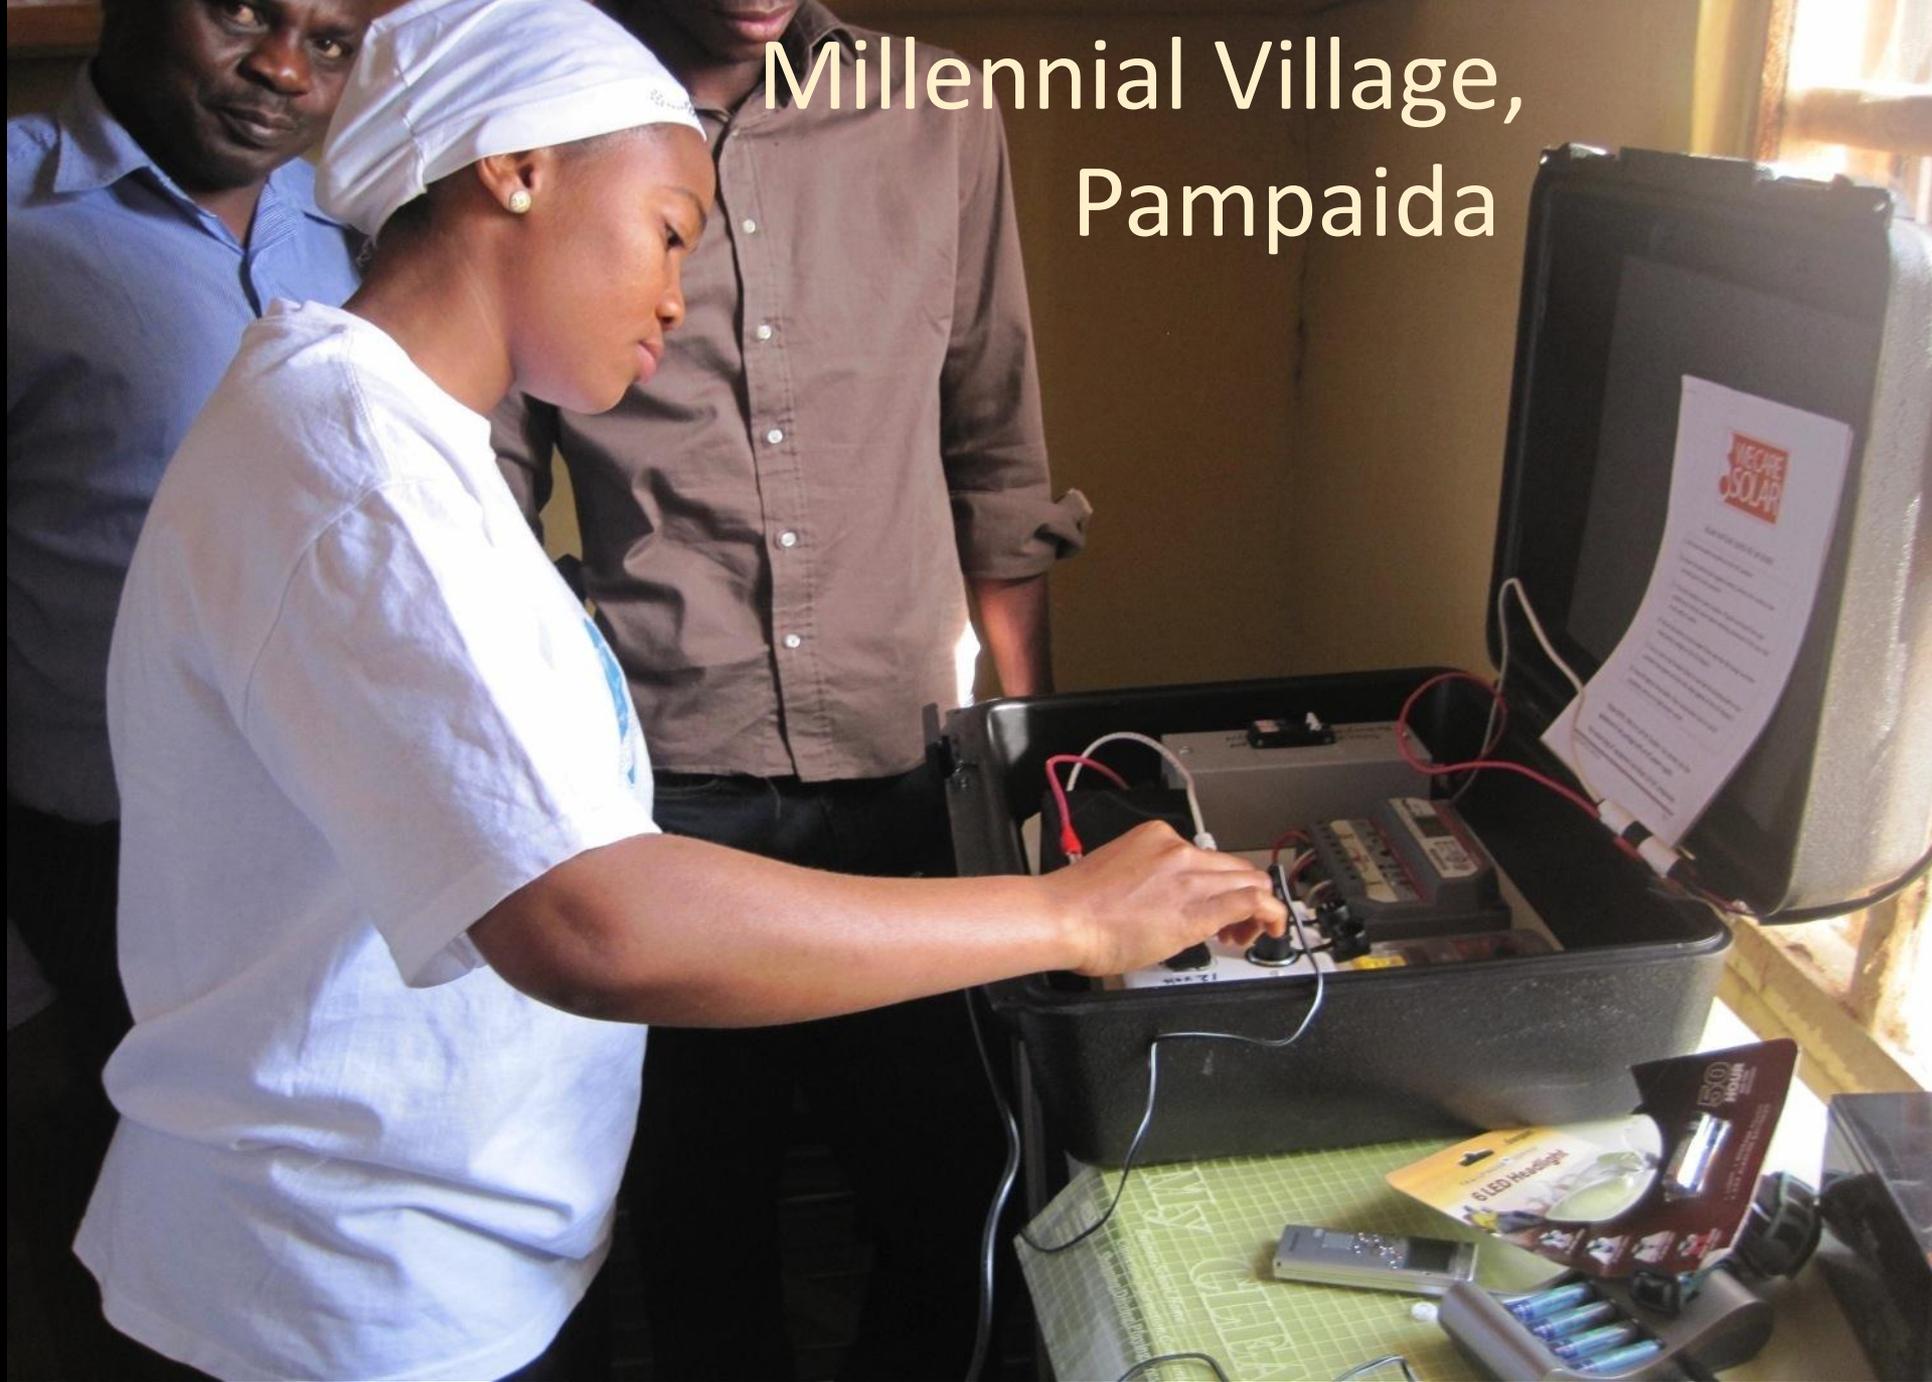

AT W
GSGH

Tutan Wada Clinic

Millennial Village, Pampaida

Rwanda

Photo Credits: Catapult Design

Burma

Photo Credit: Terry Smith

Haitian Medical Relief Tents

Credit: Enoch Choi Foundation

Kenya

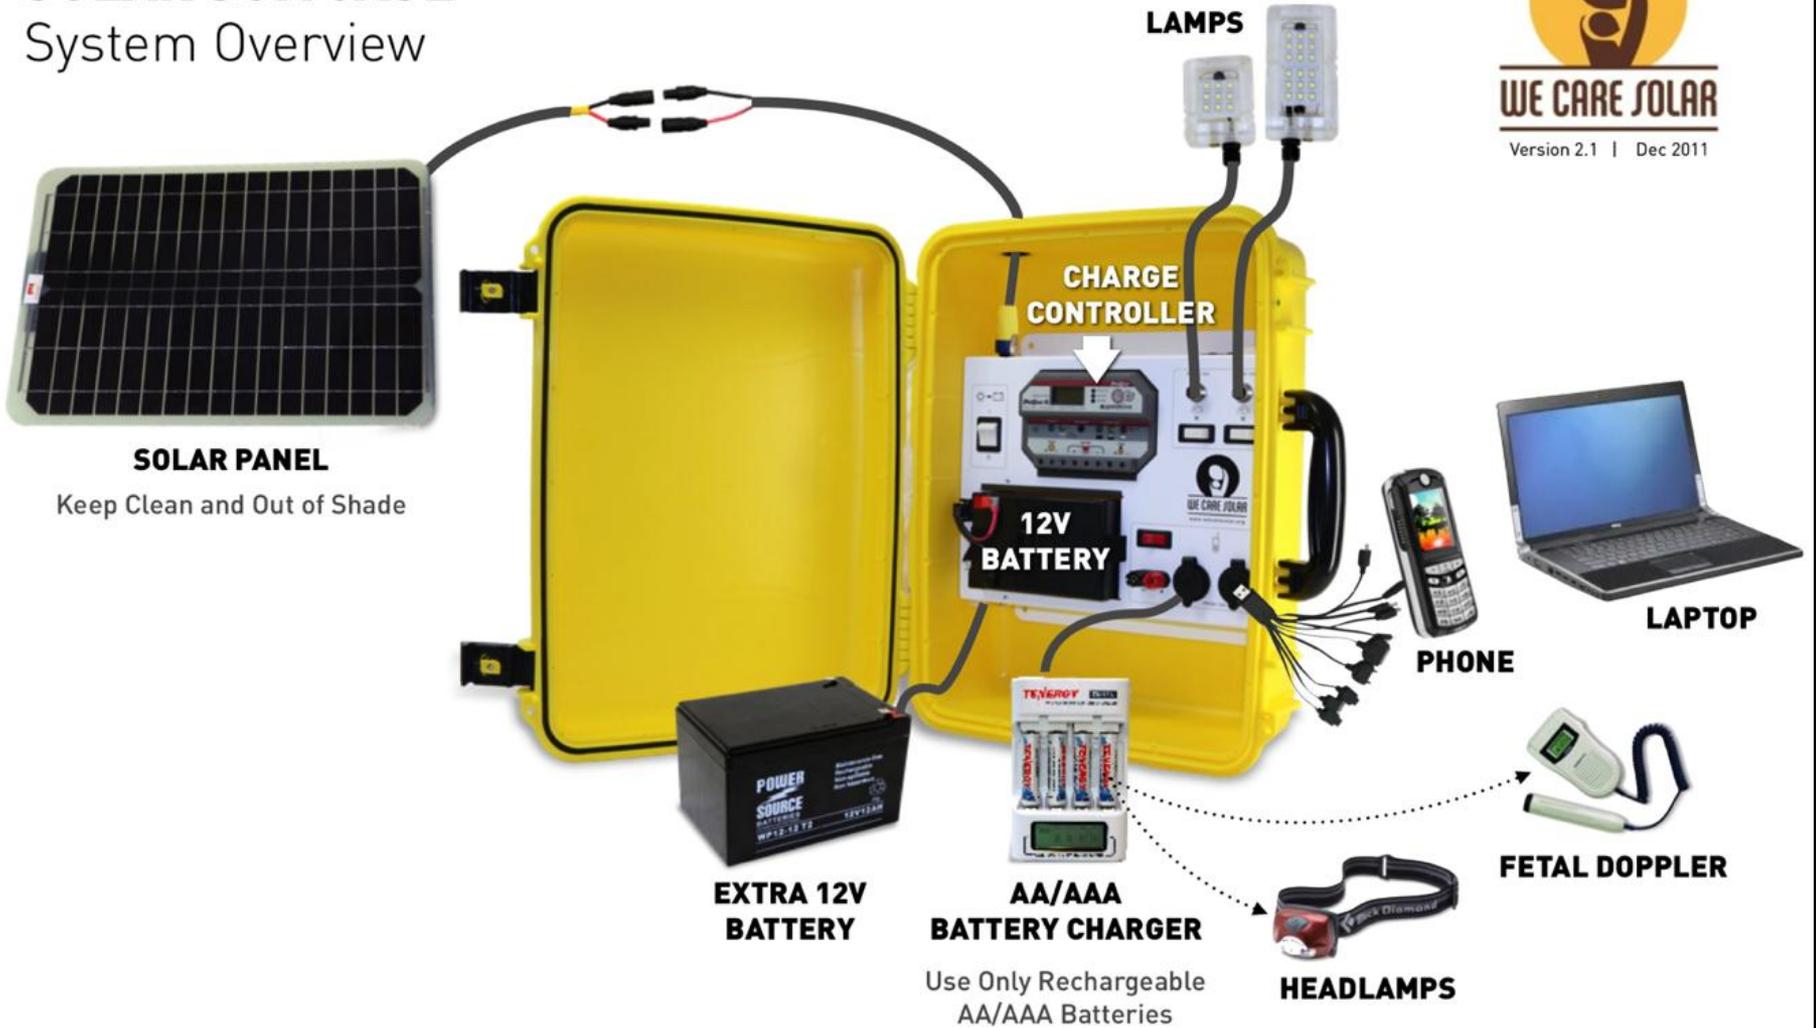

SOLAR SUITCASE

System Overview

Version 2.1 | Dec 2011

SOLAR PANEL

Keep Clean and Out of Shade

CHARGE CONTROLLER

12V BATTERY

EXTRA 12V BATTERY

AA/AAA BATTERY CHARGER

Use Only Rechargeable AA/AAA Batteries

LAMPS

PHONE

LAPTOP

FETAL DOPPLER

HEADLAMPS

Liberia

Nigeria “Safe Deliveries”

MACARTHUR
The John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation

Blum Center for Developing Economies
Real-World Solutions to Combat Poverty

Uganda “Light the Night”

Esther's story

“There’s going to be a lot of babies saved, a lot of women saved.”
“I can’t explain the happiness. It’s a different world. ”

- Ugandan midwife Esther Madudu

Community Training

Capacity Building

Community Engagement

THE BLUM CENTER FOR DEVELOPING ECONOMIES

10,000

10,000

2,000,000

Organizational Model

WE CARE Solar

www.wecaresolar.org